Pledge Collecting Tips

Why do you walk? Tell your “why” to friends and family – is it a pet that you have or once had? Have you visited the shelter recently? Have you always had a special love for animals?

What to say when asking for pledges:

Hi, I am attending the Pope Memorial SPCA’s Walk for the Animals on September 23rd. I care about homeless pets and I am hoping you will make a pledge to help me raise funds for their care. [Share a goal if you like]. Here are some examples of how your pledge can make a difference:

$25	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ◦ case of wet kitten food ◦ rabies vaccination ◦ cleaning supplies
$50	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ◦ 50lb bag of cat or dog food ◦ one month of flea/tick treatment ◦ anti-biotics and other medications
$75	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ◦ Kuranda Dog Bed for one dog ◦ one month of heartworm treatment ◦ two-month supply of KMR kitten formula
$100+	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ◦ spay/neuter surgery ◦ investigations of animal neglect and abuse ◦ continuing education/animal-related training seminars

Additional Tips:

- Place your pledge form where people will see it and/or keep it with you.
- Customize your own fundraising page: use a template on our GiveGab page—it’s an easy and fun way to raise funds. Ask friends, family, and co-workers to sponsor your steps (pledges are collected online; be sure to give a copy of page at Walk registration). Connect to our GiveGab via the link on our website: popememorialsPCA.org
- Ask those who would normally give you a birthday present or any other gift to sponsor you instead.
- Ask your human resource department about an employer match.
- ALWAYS SAY THANK YOU! The animals cannot ask for themselves, and are counting on us to ask for them. That also means saying Thanks!
